10 CENTS PER WEEK

THE BIG DAY

The Immense Crowds Are Certainly in Town This Time.

FLOWER PARADE A BEAUTY

The Attendance Yesterday Was the Largest of the Week—Today Cairo Day.

MANY PRAISES FOR THE BIG SHOW

This is the biggest day of the week and there are thousands of strangers in town. The Cairo crowds, and thousands of people from other places arrived by every boat and train, and the Cairo Elks, in uniform, were met at the wharf and escorted by Dean's band and the band from Smithland, and the local Elks, to the grounds. The Illinois visitors made a splendid impression, and are a nice set. They were accompanied by several hundred others from towns along the river. The flower parade, as announced, was the feature of the day, and one of the prettiest pageants imaginable. The marshes were: Pat O'Brien, of the First division; R. G. Caldwell, of the Second division; C. J. Wilson, of the Third division; Charles Smith, of the Fourth division; Joe Yelver, of the Fifth division, and Richard Rudy, of the Sixth division. The divisions formed adjacent to Fifth street, and marched north to Clay, thence to Ninth, south to Broadway, thence to First, south to Court, Court to Fifth, Third to Jackson, and west to Fifth, where it disbanded. The parade was a most imposing one and the vehicles were prettily decorated. The Mount City land, after the police and mounted officers, led the procession, and was followed by the Cairo Elks and the Queen's float. Paducah lodge No. 217, B. P. O. E. followed, and then came the vehicles. The other bands followed in order, and the fire departments' display, one of the most creditable ever given, was at the last. In the stack of one of the fire engines was little Miss Annie Kelly McCoy, a granddaughter of Assistant Chief Augustus. The judges were unable to decide when the procession passed the first time and asked that it come by again, in order that the prizes could be awarded. The queen's float, which could not enter the contest, was one of the most magnificent works of art ever seen here. The queen and maids of honor are all pretty young ladies and elicited much admiration. Yesterday the attendance exceeded by a thousand or more, the attendance of the preceding day, which was over eight thousand. There were many strangers in the crowd that came in the afternoon. They all left well pleased with the show. In fact they with one accord pronounced it the greatest ever seen. The Cairo delegation arrived at 12:30 and was treated to a big demonstration. The yacht Brook Hill went down the river a short distance in command of Commodore Saunders Fowler, and acted as escort to the Fowler, which steamed in amid the blowing of whistles, the firing of salutes, and the cheers of hundreds of Elks on the wharf. There were three bands when she landed, the Mount City band having come up with the Cairo crowd. The Paducah Elks, about 200 strong, with Dean's band and the band from Smithland, were in waiting, and with mounted Elks of Paducah lodge in the lead, the procession proceeded up Broadway, viewed by thousands of people. The enthusiasm shown by the visitors was great, and the reception accorded them most flattering. They were given the freedom of the town, and are the nicest set of men seen in Paducah in a long time, outside of the home people, of course. They were in uniform, and carried umbrellas, of purple and white. They will be guests of Paducah lodge until the boat leaves tonight, and if there is anything in Paducah that they want, it is not too good for them, and if they don't get it, it will be their own fault. The midway is getting its share of the patronage, and thousands pay to go in all the shows every night. The German village is one of the strongest features and the Streets of India about the best that is to be found. The dive of the Thompsons is well worth going miles to see. The exhibition of athletics and the other features are good drawing cards. Hon. F. B. Pratt, of Canton, Miss., is in the city, the guest of his brother, Mr. F. W. Pratt. Mr. Pratt came all the way from Mississippi to attend the carnival and pronounced it the best thing of the kind he ever saw. He went on the midway last night and says it is as good as the midway at Chicago.

The committee who selected the three judges of the flower parade was composed of: Messrs. W. F. Paxton, Robt. Reeves, L. S. DuBois, L. M. Rieko and Jas. A. Rudy. None of the gentlemen are Elks, and selected a committee they believed to be capable in every respect.

The postoffice closed at 10 o'clock today, and most of the stores at noon or shortly thereafter.

The committee appointed by the Elks, none of whom are members of the order, today appointed as judges of the flower parade the following: Miss Grace Smith, Mayfield; Mrs. Lillie Adams, of Fulton; and Mr. Solon Palmer, of Benton.

Mr. R. A. Gilbert is a speller from way back. If they'd put him inside and advertise him the show would be more liberally patronized than it is now. Too many like to linger about and listen to him spiel.

The Thompson's in their high dive is something never seen here before. The man dives one hundred feet and his wife about half as far. They are paid five hundred dollars a week for this feature. It is estimated that Mr. Thompson has made five thousand dives in the eight years he has been on the road, and he thinks no more of it than he does of eating his meals.

The German Village is one of the most popular of the Midway attractions. Hundreds of people visit it every day and night, and the admissions are almost as great as those to the Midway itself.

The Streets of India are the feature of the fair. The many excellent exhibitions given there fill the seats at every performance.

Many miss Manager J. J. Conley, who has gone to Owensboro to assist in getting ready for the fair. If he does as good work there as he did here, the success of the carnival may be counted on in advance.

A great many people feel sorry for the camels and donkeys, but the beasts are used to it, and would doubtless feel slighted if they weren't given a little exercise every day and night.

Mr. Gaskell, of the Carnival company, is to be congratulated on the high class of attractions he has given the public.

Madame Rotiere, the palmist, well deserves the popularity that she is winning. She has a booth, and is a highly educated young woman of Chicago, who is an expert palmist.

Joe Grimes, the fat boy, is drawing large crowds on the Midway. Although he doesn't weigh but 740 pounds now, he expects to catch up again in a short time. He manages to get around very well, and is not a stranger in Paducah, having been here a few years ago when the L. A. W. met. He was then advertising a bicycle firm, and rode a wheel on the race track here.

Philon in his grand ball act on the spiral road is not having so trying a time as you might think. He is certainly out of the reach of the confetti field.

When you pass the Scott Hardware booth on Exhibit street, look carefully for Dick Scott's fine dog. He is on exhibition, but need not alarm you as he is well chained.

Old Uncle Zekiel was taking in the Midway last night, and many paused to ask his opinion of the various attractions. "How about dat German Village, sah? Dat's all right if yuh are careful to observe dis am general rule, sah. Yuh can go inside of it as much as yuh want to, but yuh better not let it go inside of yuh. Dat's jes' de diff'ence, sah."

CARNIVAL NOTES.

The crowd in the city today is estimated to be the largest ever here at one time before in the history of Paducah.

About 500 people came in from Illinois today. The Cairo boys are all right.

The lunch stands all did a land office business today.

Tonight will be the liveliest of the week inside the grounds. The admission will probably be ten or fifteen thousand.

The flower parade was a credit to the Elks and the town.

Many people from Louisville say the Paducah fair is better by far than the creditable carnival given by the Louisville Elks last fall.

HERE ON THEIR HONEYMOON.

Mr. J. M. Jones, of Martin, Tenn., and Miss Mabel Irwin, of Wadesboro, Ky., were married last night at Wadesboro at 7 o'clock and arrived in this city last night, registering at the Palmer. They will stay over today and return to Martin, Tenn., tomorrow. Both are prominent in their homes.

THE PRIZES

Mrs. Crozier Won the First Prize and Mrs. Davis Second Prize in the Flower Parade.

The judges, after the parade, awarded the first prize to Mrs. Wm. Crozier, whose vehicle was trimmed in pink and white, and the second to Mrs. W. A. Davis, whose vehicle was trimmed in American beauty roses. The verdict was unanimous, and both vehicles were extremely pretty, and showed elegant taste, as did all the others.

The judges were: Mrs. Lillie Adams, Fulton; Miss Grace Smith, Mayfield, and Mr. Solon Palmer, Benton.

Shermer, aged 12, was thrown from a wagon on the street today and killed. His mother, who witnessed the tragedy, dropped dead.

SOUTHERN PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY. Little Rock, May 16.—Dr. Woods, of Memphis, was this morning elected moderator of the Southern Presbyterian assembly by acclamation.

ANTI-LYNCHING LAW

HAS STOOD THE TEST IN ALL THE COURTS OF OHIO. Columbus, O., May 16.—What is known as the anti-lynching act has been sustained by the supreme court in a decision handed down. The court affirmed the judgment of the circuit court of Champaign county in the case of the county commissioners versus Benjamin F. Church, administrator of the estate of Charles W. Mitchell.

"Click" Mitchell, a negro, was lynched at Urbana, Ohio, June 4, 1897, his administrator, Ben F. Church, brought suit against the commissioner of Champaign county to recover the sum of $5,000 under the special statute making the county liable in such cases. He was given a verdict for $5,000, the amount allowed by law, and the decision has stood the test of all the courts of the state.

EDDYVILLE COURT

THE NOTED BOND CASE COMES UP TODAY BEFORE SPECIAL JUDGE. The suit of Boyd against Leonard, at Eddyville, for about $6,000 claimed on a bond speculation, will come up again today in the Eddyville circuit court and no doubt will be tried.

Judge Joe McCarroll, of Hopkinsville, will be special judge, having arrived yesterday from that place. The case was continued from Monday and is one of the most important cases on the docket. The defendant, Mr. S. N. Leonard, is well known in Paducah.

Yesterday at noon Judge Cook finished the business of the court for the day and adjourned until this morning, coming with several of the court officers, down to Paducah to attend the carnival.

WAS SUICIDE

GEORGE SLAYDEN LEAVES A NOTE EXPLAINING HIMSELF. The death at Fulton of George Slayden, who was found in a dying condition from morphine poisoning, was due to suicide, as is clear from the following note, found after his death:

"May the—
"I leave home in peace. No one has forced me away. Financial trouble cause this act. There need not be any inquest held over my body as I taken poison myself. Bury my body at Pleasant Hill. My wife will pay the burial expenses."
He was undoubtedly unbalanced and had no financial troubles. He owed only about $100, and owned a farm worth $4,000.

THE LOUISVILLE STRIKE.

Louisville, May 16.—A general strike of all the unions affiliated with the Building Trades Council in Louisville is imminent. The members of the metal workers struck today. If the strike results a general tie up of all buildings will result.

POLICE NOTES

Several Small Robberies Reported to the Police Last Night.

CROOKS BEING WATCHED

This Morning in the Police Court Two Were Held Until Later in the Week—Many Seem to be Working Here.

LATEST NEWS ABOUT THE CITY HALL

The police are busy making it lively for the thieves and pickpockets. Many robberies are reported, but in most instances the complainants are strangers. The town people are discreet enough to leave valuables at home.

Some of the crooks are very bold, but as soon as they are found out they are locked up to prevent their doing further mischief.

Pete Richards, the man who took Mr. H. C. Allison's diamond, is in jail and his trial is set for tomorrow in the police court. It is thought that J. P. Russell, alias Paddy Smith, the prize fighter, who knocked Frank Dalzell down on Second street yesterday afternoon, is a member of the same gang which the diamond thief belongs, and is possibly his pal. When Russell was brought into court this morning he employed Attorneys Gilbert and Cross to defend him, but Marshal Collins, who has some other things about Russell, alias Smith, under investigation, was not ready for trial and he was locked up until tomorrow.

Chas Hughes was fined $1 and costs for being drunk, as were I. N. Berry and Wood Jones. There is another warrant against the latter for a breach of the peace, and he was last night warned to behave, but insisted on getting drunk and annoying people on the midway.

The case against Oscar Hymos, an amateur prize fighter charged with selling furniture to Rosenthal that had been bought from Gardner Bros., who held a lease on it, was disposed of by the defendant being held to answer and recognized for his appearance at the September term of court. A question never before the local courts is involved in the case. It is whether a man has any property rights in property bought by his wife and on which the payments were made by her, and whether or not he had any right to dispose of it without her consent.

There was a general fight last night at Ninth and Court streets, and as a result the following were docketed in the police court this morning: J. R. and Fayette Williams, J. Malone, Chas. Greer and Kenny Murray. Three of them were reported unable to attend court and the case was continued until Monday.

Mr. Stackwell, who travels for the Forked Deer Pants factory in Indiana, had a $65 diamond stolen from him last night.

Proffer Bond, colored, wanted at Jackson, Tenn., on some felony charge, was arrested last night on a telegram from Chief Gaston, of Jackson, and will be held to await the advices of the Tennessee authorities.

Capt. Thomas Herndon had his pocket picked last night and a wallet containing valuable papers taken.

Col. W. H. Bradley had his pocket picked of $4 last night at the carnival grounds.

Tom James, one of the local hangers on, is in jail charged with assisting John Goss and Charles Hicks, in jail for short changing Clothier Poage and several others a few months ago, to escape from the county jail. They were both caught near Brookport by Deputy Jailer Everts. James was at the jail at the time, and is alleged to have abetted the escape.

Farmer Chenault, of Carlisle county had an empty wallet taken from his pocket. He took the precaution to giving his money to his wife before going to the midway.

"Yellow Dan Charlie," colored, is in the lookout on the charge of robbery. It is claimed that he robbed a white man in a box car this morning of his watch. He was arrested by Officer C. C. Etter.

William Ashbrook, of Ballard county, a relative of Mr. Ed Ashbrook, was touched for $30 at the carnival grounds last night. He reported the theft to Officer Jones. He said he did not know when the money was taken and where he was when touched.

The following were arrested as suspects today: Charles Harris, colored, and Chas. Stevens, white.

Charles Williams, an Evansville crook, was arrested last night and given orders to leave town by Marshal

Collins this morning.

Three young men, flashily dressed, and giving the names A. W. Nolen, R. H. Morgan and J. J. O'Keath, were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Gus Rogers and Special Officer Jas. E. Robertson on a charge of gaming. They came here today with a wild west show and were operating some kind of a skin game at Second and Broadway. The victim put down his money and was told "he lost" by the slick manipulators, who raked in the coin without further explanation. The crooks wanted the privilege of leaving town, but were locked up for gaming.

FLOATER FOUND.

BODY OF A NEGRO FOUND NEAR BROOKLYN.

He Had Been Foully Dealt With From Indications—He Was Unknown.

The body of a negro who had apparently been a rouster on some steamboat, was found floating in the river near Brookport Tuesday and towed to shore. Coroner Rasgale, of Metropolis, was notified and went down and held an inquest, but could find nothing to lead to the identity of the corpse. An ugly gash in the forehead indicated foul play. The verdict was that he came to his death from foul play. There was nothing in the pockets of his clothing, which was such as roustes usually wear. The body seems to have been in the water for about fifteen days. So far as can be learned no one has been drowned or is missing on this part of the river.

EXAMINATION TODAY.

MR. OVERTON BROOKS WILL PROBABLY PASS ANNAPO-LIS EXAMINATION.

Dr. J. G. Brooks is in receipt of a letter from his son, Mr. Overton Brooks, who is now in the preparatory school at Annapolis, taking a course of study preparatory to the final examinations for entrance to the naval academy. The examinations are being held today and Mr. Brooks thinks he will be sure to successfully pass them. He was one of the seven out of a class of 75 who successfully passed the test examinations at the preparatory school and the examinations in that place are as hard, and in some instances much harder than those of the naval academy proper. If the young man is successful Paducah will be represented in the U. S. navy.

Mr. Hart Caldwell of Clarksville, arrived today to see the carnival and his many friends.

THE STONE WOMAN.

The statue turning to life is proving to be the best and most popular of the carnival shows. A statue stands on the stage in full view of the audience, the head is taken off and replaced to prove that it is not a woman wadded up and then the change takes place slowly, the color comes to cheeks, arms and shoulders, the outlines soften and assume naturalness, the change is gradual and holds the spectator breathless and finally the statue awakes and a handsome woman stands before you, there are several other very interesting things shown but the statue is the principal part. It is of more than ordinary merit and attractiveness and will more than repay a visit.

A DAILY THOUGHT.

"His heart was as great as the world, but there was no room in it to hold the memory of a wrong."—Emerson.

THE ONLY PROTECTION.

It's all right to talk about putting the crooks in jail, but how are you going to do it until you catch them? And how are you going to catch them in such a crowd? The police deserve great credit for what they have already done and encouragement for what they may do, but in such crushing crowds there are 100 to 1 odds in favor of the thief getting in his work without detection. The proper protection is for every individual to look out for himself. Men who go about in these crowds wearing diamond studs, might reasonably expect nothing better than to lose them. The police are doing everything possible for the people, but they are practically powerless. The people must take all precautions to preserve their own property. The crooks are just as shrewd as the police, and are using just as successful means to dodge the police as the police are using to catch them. Owing to the crowds the thieves and pickpockets have the advantage. If every man would leave his valuables at home, carry his money in a safe place, and have as little of it as possible about him, there would be poor picking for the crooks, and few complaints would be heard. And whatever you do, don't play Rubo, or "rubber" too much.

Col. W. J. Bryan, with the emphasis on the "colonel," is desperately seeking to convert the effort to reorganize the Democratic party, but the indications are that he will fail. The determination is strong on part of the more intelligent members of the party to cut loose from the man who has twice led them to defeat, and it is evident to everybody but Mr. Bryan himself that his influence is waning daily. Mr. Bryan is no longer a power to be reckoned with. He has done his best, he has struck his most powerful blows for Democracy, and there is nothing to expect from him in the future. The principles he advocates have been repudiated by the people of the United States, and as he refuses to cut loose from them, his party must needs cut loose from him. As a prominent Democratic paper said recently when it was announced that Mr. Bryan said he would not again be a candidate for president, "that makes it unanimous."

The committee of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections in session at Washington, has made a report in which our penal codes are arraigned in the most infinitely severe terms. It is said that they are without either consistency or justification. Legal punishment, it pointed out, had no material effect on habitual criminals. The report contended that the grossest inequalities exist in the terms of imprisonment assigned to particular offenses in different states and in the judicial administration of each state. "Practically the vast majority of our prisoners," says the report, "are but schools of criminality. Imprisonment is an unnatural life, and the vast majority of those condemned to it degenerate under its influence. The internal administrations of prisons should be directed to the education of the inmates and their training in regular and productive industry."

It has been suggested that if property owners would repair their gutters, or the city would repair them or require them to be kept at the proper grade, the city would always be more healthful. If the proper grade were maintained, it would not be necessary to flush the gutters. They would flush themselves. In hundreds of places the gutters are in such bad repair that water stands in them until it evaporates, while on the other hand, if they were put in good shape they would carry it off without any trouble. One of the worst gutters in town is the one at Broadway and Third, which is always full of stagnant water. A little attention in the direction indicated would result in much benefit all over the city.

Judge Tully tells one of the afternoon papers that he will not contest the recent Democratic primary held in the county. The Sun does not know what he is going to do but it knows what he has been saying he was going to do, and if he has decided not to contest the primary, it is a recent decision, as he was in consultation only a few days ago with the secretary of the county committee to whom he communicated his intentions. The alleged interview said to have been had with him yesterday was not held yesterday, however, as he is in Missouri on business and was not in town yesterday.

Gov. Yates, of Illinois, has vetoed a bill providing for the consolidation of school districts of a county into one district, and for free transportation of pupils to and from school. He objects to the provision insuring free rides to and from school, and intimates that the legislators, in attempting the innovation of taxing the people to give the children free rides, has demonstrated a degree of imbecility almost unheard of. They will doubtless next after riding them to school free, undertake some new fangled method of drilling an education into them by special taxation.

The teachers in Carr Institute, at Fulton, have been forbidden to dance by the board of trustees. The board announces that hereafter when teachers attend a ball, a meeting of the board will be called and their places declared vacant. The teachers may attend the theater whenever the principal approves of the play to be presented. The only reason given for the position taken by the board is that sentiment is against dancing and they cannot afford to permit it among the teachers.

China is to pay $10,000,000 a year to the powers for thirty years for the Boxer outrages. By the time she has paid this, there will doubtless have been other massacres and more indemnity. It will be a sort of endless chain with China.

CLAIMS OIL LANDS

CAPT. M. W. WARREN ALLEGED OWNER OF SOME OF BEAUMONT'S GUSHERS.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 16.—Captain M. W. Warren, St. Louis agent of the Pittsburgh Coal Combine, will be several times a millionaire if he successfully defends his title to a large body of land in the Beaumont oil district. Twenty years ago Captain Warren, with three other parties, invested in 4,000 acres of Texas land, believing it would be a good investment. They got the land at a very low figure, and Captain Warren has retained his portion, 1,000 acres, until now. If he can establish his claim he will own several of the big gushers.

As near as can be ascertained, without a survey, the Lucas and Keyser, are one or two other wells, perhaps, are upon the land which he believes is his. Captain Warren's attorneys will institute suit at once in the United States court to establish his claim. Captain Warren is here today looking after the Harry Brown, which will tow coal to St. Louis. He states that he holds an abstract to the land, and believes that his title is good.

Children who are weak, fretful or troublesome should be given a few doses of WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE. They will then become strong, healthy and active, have rosy cheeks, bright eyes, will be happy and laughing all the day long. Price 25 cents.

THE DRUMMER AT THE CARNIVAL.

Palmer House, May 16, 1901.

"Friend Jack: You will probably remember 'Buck' Van Culin's favorite expression, 'Do you remember 50,000 years ago?' Well if I live to such an age that I can truthfully and affirmatively reply to the above I don't think I will ever forget 'Paducah, B. P. O. E., 1901.' I blew up against several Metropolis lasses last night and they were certainly 'wacm' members." We took it in—'we saw everything, hoochie coochie and all. One of the girls said, when we started up against the latter, that she didn't think her 'mama' would approve of the thing 'but,' she added, 'everything goes,' and it did. I wish I could tell you everybody I saw there. You know the 'speller' comes out and calmly informs the people that 'this is not the so called vulgar,' with the accent and special stress on the latter word, 'exhibition' that you have often heard of but a clean, moral and highly instructive exhibition of the many beautiful and entrancing dances of the Orient." Say Jack, he certainly was onto his business and the way he roped them in was a novelty. One divine, I will not call his name, said he 'didn't think the show was as bad as it had been reported, and that if the ladies had no objections they would take her in.' Everything goes, you know, and so did they. Jack, if you are a church member watch out for next Sunday for if the 'Hoochie Coochie' as it is doesn't get a black eye and a sounder in the 'slats' on that day it will be a big surprise to me. Well after the smoke of the battle had cleared we struck out for the 'Streets of India,' and on the way collided with 'Holy Moses.' We gave him the channel and had started on again when one of the girls said that 'some people couldn't take a hint if it ran up against one.' That girl knew the ropes, Jack, and you bet she got her ride. You see it was this way. When she first started to mount the beast she had on too much top sail, and before I knew what had happened, she had grabbed a lock or three of my hair to steady herself before starting on the perilous journey. That was all right and I didn't complain but when she again got overbalanced and landed me one under the chin with the point of her 'daint' shoe that was the 'last straw that broke the camel's back' and now we don't speak when we pass by. Say, Jack, have they got any Sunday schools in Metropolis? If they haven't I will get into the game and follow 'Andy's' suit and toss them off several. I will tell you something in my next about the 'German Village' and what happened there. Well here comes the 'ice man.' So long. WILL.

COCK FIGHTING

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DECIDES IT IS ILLEGAL AND PORTO RICANS MOURN—THE CHIEF'S VIEWS.

San Juan, Porto Rico, May 16.—Attorney General Harlan has decided that cockfighting is illegal, so about the only amusement of the Porto Ricans is to be taken from them.

In May a general order was issued which officially approved the regulations of the local society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. One of those regulations prohibited cockfighting, but the order was never enforced. The attorney-general on being asked to decide whether the general order of the military authorities was still law held that it must be considered as a general police regulation to be enforced as are other laws.

The penalty provided is heavy. Sports are entirely lacking in Porto Rico. The small boys are just beginning to know about baseball and in a few years that game may become popular, but to deny the people of the country cockfighting is to take from them their principal recreation.

Chief of Police Fechter said yesterday that he was in favor of cockfighting and did not intend to hunt for cockfights. Any pit against which a complaint might be made would be raided, but no wholesale arrests would follow. The chief evidently goes on the principle that a custom of 300 years' standing cannot be uprooted in a day.

"Three things—drinking, gambling and cockfighting," said he, "must always exist here."

RAILROAD NEWS

MR. W. E. FERGUSON BECOMES GENERAL YARDMASTER

In Paducah—There Will be a Meeting of the Hospital Board Tomorrow—
Trainmaster Flynn Better.

Mr. W. E. Ferguson, the well known engine foreman, has been promoted to the position of general yardmaster here. The promotion was effective this morning and the new yardmaster assumed his new duties this morning. Mr. Carney, the former yardmaster, has been made assistant yardmaster until different arrangements can be made and then it is thought that he will be shored up a notch or two.

Mr. Ferguson is a thorough railroad man and will, no doubt, make a good man in the place he has been promoted to.

Mr. E. L. McMillan, the former assistant yardmaster, has been again transferred to the steamer Osborn, the company's transfer boat.

Mr. Carney, however, has not yet accepted the position offered and it is not definitely known what he will do.

Roadmaster L. A. Downs, of the Louisville division, is in the city and will attend the meeting of the hospital board tomorrow.

At the last meeting there was not a quorum present and no business was transacted, but it is thought that no trouble whatever will be experienced in procuring one this time.

Just the regular routine business will be attended to and no business of any great importance will be brought up.

There was a big business on the Illinois Central today. No. 102, the accommodation from Fulton at 7:40 o'clock, brought 500 passengers to Paducah.

Trainmaster Jack Flynn has improved sufficiently to resume his duties and left for Memphis, his division, yesterday.

The pension circulars have been received here. The new pension arrangements will be inaugurated on July 1.

The machinists have at last settled their trouble with the Illinois Central and just as the Sun had predicted, it was settled quietly and satisfactorily to both the machinists and the company.

The officials here have received notice from the Paducah delegation, this morning, stating that the matter had been settled on the 13th. From the reports sent out the settlement was made on the 30 cent basis, but it did not include the nine hour work day. Master Mechanic Barton informed a Sun reporter that he had not yet gotten the details of the settlement, but expected them today and if received would be posted as soon as a bulletin could be made out.

Since 1860 the Illinois Central has made one hundred consecutive payments in dividends, disbursing over $85,000,000. No road in the country has made a better dividend exhibit.

P. H. Morrissey, of Bloomington, Ill., was elected Grand Master of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen without opposition at Milwaukee. Others elected are as follows: First Vice Grand Master, W. G. Lee, Lawrence, Kas.; Second Vice Grand Master, T. R. Dodge, Chicago, Ill.; Third Vice Grand Master, Val Fitzpatrick, Columbus, O.
